Context: Jesus's ultimate miracle, His resurrection, serves as the foundation of Christian faith, symbolizing victory over death.

Each miracle reveals different aspects of Jesus's character and divine mission, as well as His authority over nature, sickness, death, and evil.

From a quick review, no miracles appear duplicated in this list. However, there are a few that may seem similar:

- Healing Blind Bartimaeus and Healing a Man Born Blind: These are separate events with distinct contexts, though both involve healing blindness.
- Feeding the 5,000 and Feeding the 4,000: Both involve miraculous provisions of food, but they are distinct events with separate audiences and locations.
- Healing the Gadarene Demoniacs and Healing a Mute Demoniac (and other similar exorcisms): Multiple exorcisms occur in different locations and contexts.

Each miracle listed is unique in terms of setting, details, and the audience involved. Let me know if you'd like clarification on any specific miracles that seem repetitive!
